Corrections on last letter 6/12/76

Stretcher from which bullet #399 rolled out was on ground floor, not second floor.

(not as difficult a job for Ruby to plant bullet, but still I doubt that he could have done it unobserved)

Thompson - Six Seconds in Dallas

p131, note

"A brick parapet 15 feet high and less than 2 feet wide borders the Houston Streets roof line, making a shot from there almost impossible"...